SJS Acquires Parking Lot And Drill Field

Additional parking space for 200 Spartan cars and a drill field for San Jose's ROTC will be available within a week, John Amos, director of buildings and grounds revealed today.

Located at the corner of Ninth and San Fernando streets, the old Technical High school playground will be used for college parking on Mondays through Thursdays and for ROTC drill practice on Fridays. The grounds will be available as soon as debris has been removed and driveways opened, Amos said.

In another step toward improving college parking facilities, plans for the proposed Eighth street parking system will be sent to the city traffic manager, and others concerned with San Jose State parking, Amos said. Subject to approval by the City Council, the proposal calls for one-way traffic and diagonal parking on Eighth street. The diagonal parking parking system would provide 50 additional parking spaces on the block-long street.

Existing parking lots, established by Alpha Phi Omega for college use, are located on Ninth street, and at the corners of Eighth and San Carlos streets. These lots provide space for approximately 250 cars.

Once all non-college buildings in the area from Seventh to Ninth streets have been removed, additional lots will be established for college parking until construction of new buildings is started on these sites.

Comedy and Music Headline Program At Rally Tonight

Tonight's pre-Montana game rally will feature a twirling exhibition by Norma Liefrinck, head majorette, plus many other musical and comedy acts, Chuck Wing, Rally committee chairman reported yesterday.

Other acts lined up for the show include: a combo, a pep band, vocal numbers, a bird-calling mockingbird, and other variety numbers, Wing said.

The show is to begin at 8 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium, and Wing reported that it is expected to conclude about 9 o'clock.

John Piotti will emcee the show, which was organized by Ron Wren and Jerry Ball.

Council Dissolves Its Housing Group

The Student Council in separate motions yesterday:

Dissolved its housing committee upon the recommendation of the committee itself.

Appointed Tom Evans, Associate Students president, and John Aitken, chairman of the Student Council's Housing committee, members of the Administrative Housing committee, as requested by its chairman, Dean Joe West.

Named Tom Mullan and Barbara Burke representatives to the administrative subcommittee on housing standards, headed by Stanley Benz, dean of men.

John Aitken, parade chairman, reported for the Homecoming committee that it did not go over its budget. It had been allotted $550 and spent $536.77, leaving $13 to be returned to the council.

At the Student Council meeting yesterday Marvin Scarper asked for information regarding certain stories which have appeared in the Spartan Daily about the "Sisters of Burgandy."

Scarper wondered whether the "Sisters" are of sufficient news value to justify the amount of attention given them in the campus newspaper. He was directed by Tom Evans, ASB president, to contact Bill King, the prosecuting attorney, and the Spartan Daily about the matter.

Walt Roessing, editor of the Daily, said after the meeting that he would "welcome any investigating committee or committees with open arms."

LARRY HEDIN, left, pins the chief's stars upon the collar of Peter L. Gorvad. Hedin recently resigned as student chief of the college police school staff following his appointment to the San Jose Police force. Three Opponents Lined Up for '53

Football games with Fresno State college, College of Pacific and Brigham Young university have been scheduled for the fall of 1953, Wilbur "Bill" Hubbard, director of athletics, revealed to the Spartan Daily yesterday.

Santa Clara Publicity Director Gene Perry announced in San Francisco this week that the Broncos also had scheduled the Spartans for 1953 but Mr. Hubbard said yesterday that "no contract has been drawn" between the two colleges. He did say, however, that the Golden Raiders have a desire to play their crosstown rivals next year.

Greek Skits Hit By Committee

By ED JACOBOWSKY

Six fraternities, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Nu, Theta Xi, Sigma Pi and Theta Chi, were placed on probation until June 1954 for questionable acts in the All Greek show, held Oct. 27. The acts were considered "objectionable" by certain members of the audience, including representatives of the faculty and administration.

Terms of the probation state that a three-month suspension from social activities will be imposed on any one of the fraternities which violates any policy of the college or of the Associated Student body.

Blue Key Sells Directories Today

The Blue Key student directories have been completed and are on sale today at the Library Arch. Members of the Blue Key service organization will sell them.

The names, phone numbers, local and home addresses of all San Jose State college students are listed, also the addresses and phone numbers of the faculty and of campus living groups.

A charge of 35 cents goes towards the cost of publication of the directories. No profit is made on the project, according to Cliff Majersik, Blue Key vice-president.

Truck Kills Ex-Student

Lt. Stuart McCullough, 22, who left San Jose State college last June to go on active duty in the Marine Corps, was killed early Tuesday morning in an auto accident near Quantico, Va. Marine base where he was stationed.

Also killed was Lt. John McDaniel, 22, of Las Vegas, Nev. They were standing beside their car on Shirley highway when a truck sideswiped the auto, crushing the men.

During the four years that McCullough attended the college he was president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity for two terms and president of the Interfraternity council one term. He majored in public administration.

He was graduated last March, and continued to attend college until June, when he began platoon leader training with the Marine Corps. He is the son of Mrs. Nora McCullough Huber, 175 Kirk avenue, San Jose.

Deans Committee Acts

The action was taken by the Personnel Deans Committee composed of Joe H. West, dean of students; Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women; Stanley C. Benz, dean of men, and Edward W. Clements, personnel counselor.

At a meeting of the Interfraternity Council held last night, IFC President Rich Garcia stated that the IFC advisory board would meet with the Personnel Deans committee to seek a shortening of the probationary period.

The committee at one time had considered placing the six fraternities on a three-month social probation immediately. Later, it decided to suspend the period of social probation in favor of the longer period with social probation as a punishment for future violations.

The committee has held several conferences with representatives of the fraternities, as well as with a committee from the Interfraternity council and the Executive committee of the Student Council.

Dean West sent letters explaining the action to each of the fraternities involved. He also announced that the All-Greek show may not be held again until the IFC has worked out a plan that will insure that the show will be conducted on a high plane.

Clear Policy Required

These plans must include "a clear policy regarding theme, costumes, script, time, place and length of show, and some indication that the IFC has the organization and standing necessary to assure proper attention to these plans and policies," Dean West said.

In accepting the report of the committee, President John T. Wahlquist congratulated the groups which had worked on the problem. He said that it should provide the machinery to prevent the future staging of any shows with questionable features.

"I desire to congratulate the personnel deans, the Interfraternity Council members, and the Executive committee of the Student Council for the countless hours they have spent in their deliberations.

"It is too bad that a few fraternities reflected unjustly upon the integrity of all fraternities. Inasmuch as most of the acts in the show were commendable, the student body, faculty and administration have been subjected to needless and unjust criticism," Dr. Wahlquist said. "It is to be hoped that the deliberations have opened the eyes of all concerned to the seriousness of all public performances under college auspices."

Thrust and Parry

Who's Apotheosis?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It certainly is good to see that the bearers of all those student body cards, listed under that atrocious epistle of last Friday, regarding last year's All-Greek show, are so interested in the student welfare. It gives me that warm feeling to realize that there are still people in this world who are self-righteous enough to set themselves up as the apotheosis of moral rectitude and pass judgment on the conduct of others.

It seems that the do-gooders are always busy. When moral wrong-doings reach a low ebb they start reclassifying just what is wrong so that they are never out of a job. Anybody who could see anything maliciously obscene in last year's winning fraternity skit must have been looking at the show through smutty-colored glasses.

But don't give up boys . . . or girls . . . or whatever you are, if you find time hanging heavy on your hands, you can always go to work to have prohibition reinstated.

WM. SPENGEMANN,
(For the Brothers of Alpha Tau Omega).

Breakfast Fans, Arise

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Professor Hermanns has dramatically struck a blow to correct a national problem—that of no time for breakfast. Students without breakfast? No No! A thousand times no. Let's unite. Let's fight! But what to do?

I submit a few suggestions by way of enlisting others in this new crusade to fight an ill we should not evade:

1. The state should buy every student an alarm clock. We have more money than time.

2. The college should serve breakfast in the 7:30 classes.

3. There should be a rule that all fraternity and sorority members rise at 5 a.m. to have an hour of outside athletic drill before breakfast.

4. Abolish 7:30 classes, but the students to be on the campus at 8 o'clock, with classes beginning at 10 o'clock. Thus students could get breakfast before class at the Coop and funds could be raised to build a Student Union.

5. The college to serve breakfast in bed to every student. Something nutritious like sauerbraten and pig knuckles.

6. Send students who are late five days a week a blue card every week.

7. Have the Health office administer to students who are chronically late some potion designed to eliminate sluggishness.

These are only a few suggestions until we can find out what UNESCO, the federal government, the State of California and the City of San Jose can do about the problems of students and breakfasts without eliminating students or breakfasts.

Homeowners Hit Living Facilities

Editor: The opinions expressed in this letter come from a group of housemothers in charge of homes where college women students live.

The recent articles and editorials on the conduct of San Jose College students, in particular freshmen, shock and shame the people of San Jose, the alumni of San Jose State who are proud of their college reputation, and the students themselves. However, we feel that the students are not themselves so much to blame for existent immorality and rowdiness; rather it is a direct outcome of several situations involving student housing about which the public should be aware.

Fundamentally, and most basic, is the lack of housing, which has brought about lowering of standards and requirements in order to find rooms for students. San Jose has refused more than once to cooperate with the college in putting into effect the crying need for zoning regulations which would open up more of the large Naglee Park homes for college housing. We directly charge the City Council and Zoning Commission of the City of the refusal to face the handwriting on the wall—the need to extend rooming house or apartment house zoning east of the college, not only to alleviate crowding of college houses but to create a healthy competition for exorbitantly priced apartments in the heart of our City. In the face of progress and the City's growth in population, San Jose is sadly lacking and behind the times.

It is only necessary to look at birth statistics to predict that there will be deluge of students desiring entry into our California colleges within the coming five years. The war babies of 1940 will begin to flood our colleges in 1957 and 1958. We are facing larger enrollments every year until that deluge comes. Even now, college officials are making efforts to buy more land for expansion for future enrollment needs. Where, Mr. Councilman, do you think they are going to live? Where, Mr. Zoning Commissioner, when outdated zoning laws have college students packed four to six to a room in houses around Washington Square where bathroom facilities are inadequate, where students are living over garages and in basements? When will San Jose wake up to these needs? How much longer will we deny progress and the admirable desire of our young people to learn—to make something better of themselves and, God willing, the world into which we put them?

The proposed dormitories—which may take five to 10 years to achieve—will house a mere 400. They assuredly are not the answer; nor is the new junior college, for educators even now are beginning to predict that eventually such colleges as San Jose State will be able to handle only the last two years of college education because of crowding.

Another phase of the problem is the lackadaisical college student and administrative supervision of existent housing, which directly brings about bad conduct. Indeed, up to this time there have been no college rules regarding men's housing and lack of enforcement of women's housing rules. What is to be expected but rowdiness where there is no adequate supervision? Coordination and cooperation between college officials and college houses have been non-existent.

The students themselves sorely feel the need of adequate housing and housing rule regulations. Let's give it to them.

Time To Terminate Tower Tradition

We are wondering if someone shouldn't immediately investigate to see if the Tau Deltas, the campus intelligentsia, are locked in and unable to emerge from the college's ivy-covered Tower.

Why? It seems a very fair suggestion was made last month concerning the Tau Delta's iron-clad hold on the Tower of Sparta and nary a word has been heard one way or the other. It was suggested that the "lofty spot could be put to better use."

At the present time, the highly-regarded Tau Deltas have the exclusive use of the room in the Tower. This organization usually holds one and possibly two meetings a week. Now why can't this sociable campus group stand aside and let other Spartans have use of the Tower when occasions demand it?

Overcrowded facilities at Sparta have hit everyone. Such organizations as Blue Key and Spartan Shields have to search continually for a quiet location at which to hold their conclaves. The Blue Key directory is being published late this quarter because of the lack of a meeting place.

We know the Tower room is cramped and can not hold, with any comfort, an exceedingly large group. But the need for the use of this area is serious, despite the limitations.

The Tau Deltas have a wonderful opportunity to thrust aside tradition and temporarily help another campus organization. How about it, Tau Deltas?

Why Just The Frats?

Six fraternities have been placed on probation until June 1954 for presenting obscene and objectionable acts in last month's annual Greek show.

What happened to the sororities that were involved in the mess? Why did the one sorority which was on the carpet for at least a week escape without being placed on probation too?

We recall how student reaction immediately following the show indicated that a particular sorority was the worst of all the offenders. This reaction was widespread and was not the opinion of just a few. Yet no action, to our knowledge, has been taken against the fair sex.

We feel that at least an explanation of why the sorority women "escaped the gallows" is fitting. Otherwise, many other students will feel that an unjust and one-sided judgment has been made against the social fraternities.

College To Install 8 Bulletin Boards College Will Give Personnel Tests

The Student Council heard a report yesterday from John Smee, bulletin board custodian.

Smee said that the administration has approved the recommendations of the Bulletin Boards committee.

Eight bulletin boards, similar to the one in the Library Arch, are to be placed around the campus. Certain regulations governing the use of the boards also were approved by the administration.

The regulations provide for a sign-up for the use of the boards and also limit organizations to use of the boards instead of posters erected elsewhere on campus. Smee said.

Personnel entrance tests, which are required of undergraduate and graduate student as one of the steps toward admission to the college, will be given Dec. 4 in Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Dr. Harrison Heath, test officer.

The tests are provided especially for those late entrants who failed to take them in September. The entrance tests will be given from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Enrolled students who haven't yet taken the personnel tests, and fail to take them on Dec. 4 will be denied winter quarter registration, Dr. Heath said.

'Knotholers' Get Admitted Free To SJS-Montana Tilt

Some 500 junior high school "knotholers" will be admitted free to the SJS-Montana game tomorrow evening, according to Cliff Majersik, ASB public relations director.

"Until now, there has been no special price for kids, with the result that they sneaked into the stadium and created a problem," Majersik said.

Under the "knotholers" program, there will be 10 to 12 supervisors provided by the City Recreation department, and six more furnished from the Rally committee.

"Knotholers," Majersik explained, are junior high students who are playing in the city recreation-sponsored touch football leagues.

The junior high students will sit in the end zone section, and have their own yell leader, Majersik said.

No Cool Cat!

Well, I hate to admit it, but I simply am not "cool." Neither am I "way out, Man, what I mean gone?" Probably this makes me the most reactionary of reactionaries, musically speaking, but I am a man of courage and feel I must express myself.

Once upon a time, I was cool, way out, gone. I thought that JATP, or, to the uninitiated, Jazz at the Philharmonic, was simply "the greatest ever, Man!" I was fourteen at the time and young for my years.

I had pegged trousers, a string tie, a duck's tail hair-do and stomping shoes. I could leap up and holler "Go! Go! Go! Go, Man!" with the best of them. After all, we have all sinned.

Times have changed and so have I. But, unfortunately for the world of music, and particularly for the world of jazz, JATP has not.

The other evening, JATP did San Jose the dubious honor of opening its nation-wide tour here. Had I been alert in my duties as a public-spirited, watch-dog type journalist, I would have given you forewarning. But, if I may add butchery of a metaphor to my multitude of failings, I was asleep at the switch.

Unwarned, then, a few of you must have been sucked in. It is understandable if you were. Mr. Norman Granz, the promoter, offered some mighty enticing talent. Real famous jazzmen like Gene Krupa, Buddy Rich, Lester Young, Roy Eldridge and Flip Phillips.

Now I did not attend Mr. Granz' presentation here, being as I said before, no longer cool. But a friend reports the following:

The first number was the "Star Spangled Banner." Perhaps Mr. Granz is a very patriotic fellow. But when his charges jazzed the national anthem, even the coolest spectators cringed at the lack of good taste. Fortunately for international relations, they did not choose to improve on "God Save the King," or the "Marseillaise."

After this initial faux pas, the gentlemen went off into their regular show. This consisted mainly of a great deal of writhing, facial contortions and foot stomping and minimum of music.

Mr. Flip Phillips, who once played a nice, smooth sax, spends most of his time imitating a bull elephant with extreme dyspepsia. He and his friend, Mr. Young, also had a contest, the object of which was to produce the highest screech and the lowest burp possible with a reed instrument.

A similar contest was by the trompeters, Mr. Roy Eldridge and Mr. Charlie Schaeffers, and the drummers, Mr. Gene Krupa and Mr. Rich. This latter was somewhat comparable to being trapped in a gasoline barrel with two beserk jack-hammer operators.

Mr. Oscar Peterson, the large Canadian, played an enjoyable piano for a while. He often was extremely imaginative and whimsical on the keyboard. At other times, however, he sounded like Mr. King Cole giving a bad imitation of Mr. George Shearing.

Miss Ella Fitzgerald, the large American, sometimes sang very well, indeed. That is when she sang it straight. But she also "bopped it," which was nothink more than a perversion of the highly improbable "scat" singing of the late 1920's.

JATP wound up with a slam bang conglomeration of dissonance called "Perdido." This title, I believe, is from the Spanish and means "lost," which is exactly what JATP should get.

Department Head Participates In Home Economics Expansion Study

A study concerning the expansion of curriculum in home economics at the college level has been undertaken by the State College Homemaking Curriculum committee, according to Dr. Margaret Jones, head of the Home Economics department. Dr. Jones attended the committee's conference Nov. 3-4 in San Francisco.

YOUR CLOSEST
FRIENDLY DRUGGIST
Morehead-Fleming Drug Co.
100 SOUTH SECOND STREET

"Since every college expects to offer home economics as a means of education for women, we need to stress the regional needs to be considered and to discover how to meet those needs through courses that may be offered to students," said Dr. Jones.

She stated that Dr. C. O. McCorkle, general chairman, expects it will take two years to complete the study.

Choose Topics

Six topics, asserted Dr. Jones, were chosen to be completed this year. The topics are as follows:

1. Role of family members in the American scene.
2. The needs of homemakers as basic to the general education for home and family life.
3. The needs for and of specialists in the field including teachers, nutritionists, dietitians, institutional managers, and home economics women in business.
4. Guide lines for programs in various state colleges.
5. A survey of all courses being offered together with illustrations and examples of outstandingly well developed programs.

6. Recommendations as to the development of specific programs to be offered in the various colleges in California.

Dr. Jones was assigned topic Number 3, with the exception of teacher training, because "SJS is the only college offering training programs in home economics fields other than teacher training." She also mentioned that the Home Economics department here is the oldest in California.

Don't Give Up Yet; Enroll In Psychology 3!

By JOE BRYAN

If you got a whole bushel basket of blue cards, and are considering such a drastic measure as giving up this whole business of college, cease and desist.

Chances are you just never learned how to study and Psychology 3, a three unit "How to Study" course, may be the solution.

"The course is to help students with poor study habits or with poor social adjustment," said Dr. Gene A. Wallar, associate professor of psychology.

"The course is not a cure-all, nor does it work miracles," Dr. Wallar continued. "However, there is one case of which we are particularly proud. A student came to us with a 1.0 average and had raised it to 2.3 at the time he was graduated."

Dr. Wallar described this as an extreme case and said that the general tendency was for students to improve their grades a full letter during the quarter in which Psychology 3 is taken and then to level off at a half letter grade improvement for the rest of the college career.

Students who drop out of college after taking Psychology 3 don't constitute failures, Dr. Wallar explained. They often had no desire to go to college in the first place and were doing so while they searched for a goal in life. "We like to feel that we have contributed something to those students also," Dr. Wallar said.

Freshmen and sophomores may take Psychology 3 for credit, according to Dr. Wallar. Upper division students are allowed to audit. Dr. Wallar recalled a student with a B-plus average who took the course, hoping to improve.

Psychology 3 has a double intention, Dr. Wallar noted. The "How to Study" students are aided by members of Dr. Alice Dement's "Practices in Counseling" courses.

Lyke Co-Editors Maintain: 'We Ain't Got No Troubles!'

"We ain't got no troubles at the present time," Bob Kimura and Bob Miller, co-editors of Lyke, the campus feature magazine, informed the world yesterday.

"The publication date, Dec. 3, has been set and some material is at the printer's already," they continued.

"Unity is our key word," they said. To prove this, Kimura and Miller disclosed that several members of the staff worked Armistice day, while the rest of the school was relaxing.

Persons who worked the holiday included Kimura and Miller, co-editors; Joyce Burrell, fashion editor; Marcella Bernardi, assistant fashion editor; Bob Pettet, make-up editor; Hubert Vargas, art; Roy Wager, exchange; and Don Nunes, business manager.

Principal reason for working on the holiday was the size of this year's magazine. It will be a 48-pager. The only previous edition as large was in fall of 1951, a record breaker. Everything in Lyke will be "bigger and better," the editors say.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Hal Hayden, publicity director in charge of advertising at Macy's department store. Hayden's topic was Christmas promotion.

The president of the ADS alumni group is Pete Schultz, advertising representative for Duncan Scott, Gualco stated.

The San Jose State college chapter of ADS is the largest in the Bay Area, Gualco reported.

AL MATTHEWS, No. 28, Spartan halfback, in his anxiety to turn the end in Friday night's contest with Brigham Young university, almost loses the pigskin, but finally recovered with a firm grip to charge on for a ten yard ramble. Key block in the background is being layed by Spartan tackle, Sal Cardinali. The Spartans triumphed in the tussle, 14-27. They will go after their sixth victory of the season tomorrow night when they tangle with the University of Montana Grizzlies at Spartan stadium.

Spartan Injured Return to Lineup

Coach Bob Bronzan expects to send a hail and hearty crew of Spartan gridders out on the field tomorrow night to face the University of Montana Grizzlies, despite the large number of casualties suffered in the Brigham Young university game Friday night.

Coach Bronzan said yesterday that all his wounded warriors, with the possible exception of Larry Rice, defensive halfback, will see action. Although the four injured players didn't suit up until yesterday for workouts, they will get into the game. Lynn Aplanalp and Bob Hamilton were both sidelined with rib separations, while Dale Summers and John Anastasia were out with mild concussions.

The Cougar game pulled the Golden Raiders back up into second spot in the nation in both the total offense and rushing offense departments. The locals boast a 290.7 yards per game rushing average and 440 yards per game in total offense. Individually, two Spartans remain in the nation's top ten in their respective departments. Aplanalp is ranked tenth in total offense yardage gained, with 1168 yards in 189 plays. Dick "Freight Train" Stults, the Spartans' crushing fullback, jumped back up into ninth place with 196 yards gained in the BYU encounter. Stults now has 678 yards in 58 rushes for the season.

The Raiders' next opponent, Montana, were scheduled to arrive in town last night at 9 o'clock. They planned to fly into town early because of a storm which was moving toward Missoula and which might have hampered their leaving at a later date. The Grizzlies will enter the game with two wins, five losses, and one tie on their record for the season. They scored their initial victory against Denver, 17-7, and later defeated Montana State for their second win, 35-12. In their big game to date they tied the University of Oregon, 14-14. The Missoula eleven has fallen prey to Utah State, 7-0; Wyoming, 14-0; BYU, 28-7; Colorado A&M, 41-0, and Idaho, 27-0.

"We have played off and on football all year, and against San Jose State we will have to play by far our best to date if we wish to make a showing," Grizzly Coach Eddie Chinske said yesterday. "I think that the boys will be up for this one."

Coach Reveals Novice Boxing Tourney Dates

The SJS novice boxing tournament, billed as one of the college's most colorful events, will be held Dec. 3, 4 and 5, according to Spartan Boxing Coach Dee Portal.

Portal said 12 teams have signed up to date and most of the boxers are beginning to work out regularly. He urged all of the participants who have not begun to get into shape to do so. Night workouts will be started soon, he added.

"The novice tournament gives everyone who has not had varsity competition a chance to compete. The more skilled non-varsity men will be entered in the junior division to make it even fairer for the rank beginner," Coach Portal said.

Local Riflers Prep for Big Shoot With Cal

San Jose State rifle men will be prepping for their "big one" with the University of California squad when they meet their two-time victims, the Sunnyvale Padre club, Tuesday afternoon.

The Spartan Musketeers anticipate little trouble in setting back the Padres, even though both previous matches were closely contested, and are optimistic about their chances against the Bears, defending national collegiate champions.

Rifle Coach Sgt. Richard Hosking said, "I believe that this year's team is the best rifle squad in the history of the school and I feel that we have a wonderful chance of upsetting the highly-touted Cal team."

Showing outstanding form so far this season have been Walt Reinhardt, Kaye Tomlin and Bill Divine, all returning lettermen. Hosking said that new shooters Bill Feeley and Orbie Robinson have helped the team considerably.

The SJS squad was hurt by the loss of Jack Raichart, top man on last year's team. He is not attending the college this quarter.

California, which has lost but one match in National Collegiate Rifle Conference competition in the last five years, is led by John Tarras, an all-American rifleman in the 1951-52 season.

Sgt. Hosking announced his shooting team against the Padres and Bears as Arlen Amaral, Tom Willis, Guy Wright, Al Malech, Tom Trebotich, Feeley, Divine, Tomlin, Reinhardt and Robinson.

SJS To Host PAAW Wrestling On Saturday

San Jose State will host the Pacific Athletic Association novice wrestling tournament Saturday with nine teams and numerous individuals entered to date.

Spartan Coach Hugh Mumby will enter 21 men in the competition. Other teams that have filed entry are Stanford, California, San Francisco State, San Francisco Olympic club, Santa Clara and the YMCAs of Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco.

The tournament is open to anyone who has not won a first, second or third place medal in an AAU meet. Competition will be held in the 115, 123, 130, 137, 147, 157, 167, 177, 191 and heavyweight pound divisions.

Preliminary matches will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday and will continue on through the afternoon, according to Coach Mumby.

Wrestling in Saturday's tournament will be held according to Olympic rules. A point system will determine the winner rather than an elimination basis.

College Badminton Finals Are Slated At Eight Tonight

The All-College Badminton tournament finals will be held tonight at 7 o'clock in the Women's gym.

The qualifying matches were held Oct. 30 and the semi-finals Nov. 6 in the Women's gym.

Players who do not appear within ten minutes of their scheduled playing time will automatically forfeit the game.

Fat and fortyish though they may be, the San Francisco Olympic club water poloists came from behind with a last quarter rally to dunk the San Jose State varsity 7-5 last night in the college pool.

Gunning for an upset, the Spartans had a 5-4 lead going into the final quarter, but three quick goals, all scored within two minutes after the period started, put an end to the hopes of the San Joseans.

In the first half Spartan Taylor Hathaway and his former Palo Alto high school teammate Irwin Johnson of the Olympic club engaged in a personal duel.

Neither team could score in the final five minutes of play.

Johnson opened the scoring with two and a half minutes left to play in the first quarter. Hathaway tied it up just before the horn with a skip shot.

Almost immediately after play resumed in the second canto, Johnson made it 2-1 only to have Hathaway make it two all with a beautiful dribbled-in lob shot to the left of OC's magnificent goalie, Bob Woodman.

Chet Keil put the locals ahead 20 seconds before the half. That lead lasted little longer than the rest period as Andy Burke whipped in a long shot after ten seconds.

The cagey Hathaway again knotted the count with a flip from the four-yard block. Olympic Clubber Bill Hickey countered 30 seconds later and it was 4-4.

Bob Filler gave the Spartans a

5-4 margin at the end of the third quarter. Then the roof caved in with Art Belcher, Johnson and Don Peterson scoring in quick succession.

Judo Coach Yosh Uchida looks on as Lyle Hunt throws Jim Foster

Yosh, Lyle and Jim Boost Sparta To High Spot in Judo Rankings

By BILL FARR

Sometimes lost in the maze of the highly publicized exploits of crashing fullbacks, altitudinous basketballers and bonus-baby baseball players are the stars of the so-called minor sport teams. Spartan judo aces, and when you talk of Coach Yosh Uchida, Lyle Hunt and Jim Foster the term "ace" is not a cliché, are a good example of this.

Coach Uchida, who has been at the helm of SJS judo teams since 1946, is one of the foremost judoists in the nation, highly regarded as a teacher and student of judo both in this country and by the Kodokan, official organ of all judo, over in Japan.

Yosh, one of the few fourth degree black belts in the U.S., has been turning out championship teams at the college since 1950. His squads have won the Northern California championship three years running and last year's aggregation captured the California State All-Star tournament held in Los Angeles.

The dapper Spartan mentor will be taking 25 of his charges to the Northern California Promotional tournament Sunday to give them an opportunity to advance their belt ratings.

Foremost among the entrants will be Hunt and Foster, both of whom will be attempting to further their first degree black belt ratings. If either succeeds, which is definitely in the realm of possibility, he would be only the second college judo man in history to attain second degree black belt rating.

A former Spartan, George Best, who was graduated in 1951, was the only collegian ever to achieve that honor.

Very few of Sparta's athletic heroes can boast of a record like the one belonging to the hatchet-faced Hunt. He has a long line of "outstandings" to his credit. Among them are the '51-'52 Outstanding Northern California Judoist award and a similar accolade as San Jose State's top man, which is awarded not only on the basis of ability but also on citizenship and inspiration.

At the 1952 PAAU meet, Hunt was awarded the "Outstanding Competitor Award" by virtue of his winning the tournament's heavyweight title. He will captain this year's SJS judo team.

Foster, the captain of last year's championship team, won the award for Northern California's Outstanding Judoist in the year previous to Hunt. He won his black belt that same year.

Health Office Prepares For Flu Shots Nov. 20

Immunization shots against influenza will be offered once more by the Health office Nov. 20, according to Miss Margaret Twombly, Health and Hygiene department head.

Charge for the immunization will be 60 cents, to cover the extra expense which will result in the administering of the shots.

Immunization cards may be obtained in the Graduate Manager's office. Deadline for purchasing a card is Nov. 17 at 4 p.m. Positively no cards will be sold after the deadline, according to Miss Twombly.

The virus vaccine to be used consists of: Influenza Type A, PR-8 and FM-1 strains, and Influenza Type B, Lee and Cuppett strains.

According to Miss Twombly, the Health department last year had 331 applicants for the influenza immunization program.

"There seems to be no epidemic at the present time but if history repeats itself, we can expect at least a mild one during the winter months," Miss Twombly said Friday.

Miss Twombly emphasized the fact there is no way to guarantee immunization in the case of any one individual, that there are many strains of the influenza virus, and that one can be exposed to a type not available in immunization form.

Wilde Comedy Draws Sellout Crowd Nightly

An estimated 900 tickets were sold to "The Importance of Being Earnest," Speech and Drama department production, which finished a six-day run Saturday.

This total does not include the season tickets sold at the beginning of the quarter, according to Mrs. Virginia Vogel, department secretary.

During the closing nights of the run, standing room tickets also were sold, Mrs. Vogel said. Except for Friday, the night of the Brigham Young football game, the production was a complete sell-out.

The cast received the praises of San Francisco and San Jose newspaper reviewers, following an invitational preview Oct. 29. The Oscar Wilde comedy ran Oct. 30 through Nov. 8.

Write a Lucky Strike jingle!

No box tops! NO ENTRY BLANKS! It's easy!

Just write a 4-line jingle based on the fact that

LUCKIES ARE MADE BETTER TO TASTE BETTER!

HERE ARE THE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Write your Lucky Strike jingle on a plain piece of paper or post card and send it to Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure that your name, address, college and class are included—and that they are legible.
2. Base your jingle on any qualities of Luckies. "Luckies are made better to taste better," is only one. (See "Tips to money-makers.")
3. Every student of any college, university or post-graduate school may submit jingles.
4. You may submit as many jingles as you like. Remember, you are eligible to win more than one $25 award.

Here's your chance to make yourself $25. Just write a 4-line Lucky Strike jingle, based on the fact that Luckies are made better to taste better.*

Then, if we select your jingle, we'll pay you for the right to use it, together with your name, in Lucky Strike advertising... probably in this paper.

Read the sample jingles on this page. Then get the gang together, break out the rhyming dictionary, and start writing. It's fun! And we're buying jingles by the bushel!

Hint—if you can sing your jingle, it's a good one!

Hint—the more jingles you write, the more money you have a chance of making.

Hint—be sure to read all the instructions!

*TIPS TO MONEY-MAKERS

To write a winning Lucky Strike jingle, you're not limited to "Luckies are made better to taste better." Use any other sales points on Lucky Strike such as the following:

Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco
Luckies' cigarette-tearing demonstration
Luckies taste cleaner, fresher, smoother
Be Happy—Go Lucky
So round, so firm, so fully packed
So free and easy on the draw
Buy Luckies by the carton
Luckies give you deep-down smoking enjoyment

I've heard the same in every class—
In history, psych, and ec—
For cleaner, fresher, smoother smokes,
It's Lucky Strike, by heck!

I like a better-tasting smoke
And mildness counts with me.
So when I buy I keep in mind
That L.S./M.F.T.!
